

Soap Scum

How many of you woke up this morning and thought about soap scum in your bathtub? Anyone? Just me?

How often have you cleaned your tub and wished you would never have to clean it again? Just clean it once and be done with it? Only, it doesn't work that way. You have to clean it over and over again. If you don't, then the soap scum will build up and make it harder to clean.

Some Christians think that once they are saved, they are always saved. But the Apostle Paul talks about renewing one's faith daily.

1 Corinthians 15:31 (KJV): "I protest by your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily."

---

This scripture emphasizes the continuous effort required to overcome sin, likening the spiritual discipline to a daily act of dying to oneself, shedding the old to embrace the righteousness found in Christ.

Just like cleaning soap scum from your bathtub, you must cleanse your soul daily. If you ignore it, sin builds up and becomes more challenging to get rid of.

Sin, like stubborn soap scum, can be stubborn and difficult to remove from our lives. It may seem easier to ignore or brush it off, but the longer we let it linger, the more damage it can do. We must make a conscious effort daily to clean out the negative thoughts and behaviors that build up in our hearts and minds.
